II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

Based on the claim I, Sha Teina Anahita Lin Grady El. deserve the relief requested due to the fact that Ricky Barnosky and Michael Pranger among others took an Oath to defend the Constitution and the rights of the people and therefore had a legal and a moral obligation to act in favor of rights that are secured to me by the Constitution. In the Taylor Law Enforcement Code of Ethic, they are to "Respect the Constitutional Rights of All, to Liberty, Equality and Justice" by which they have failed miserably at. This is not the first violation committed against me by Taylor Police, July 2018 more than Ten (10) [officers] Conspired against rights and Deprived me of Rights that are secured to me as well as assaulted me causing me bodily injury and damage to my property. These Rogue individuals have a propensity to violate the Constitutional rights of others with no remorse or recourse. I now suffer from PTSD and Anxiety as I fear for my life whenever I see them [officers] in my travels. Not knowing if my right to travel will be impeded again and if at that time their excessive force will result in severe injuries or the termination of my life. Pursuant to the unanimous declaration of independence, all men are born free and equal and have the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.
